Spring Coats and Dresses for Women Come Crowding Forward.

The variety of the new fashions seems almost endless, both in suits and dresses. In those just unpacked you will notice how true this is—

Among the New Suits Clamoring for Recognition

Are coverts, poplins, gartardines and serges in the late shades of Palm Beach Sand, Oregon Green, Belgian Blue, Gettysburg Gray, Putty, etc., etc.

Many smart little Eton jackets are shown as well as the 24-inch lengths with flare skirts—Empire styles are much in vogue and Military cuts are greatly in evidence.

Among the Dresses

Soft putty colored silks have silver and gold buttons and some with leather belts. White taffeta dresses have chiffon frill collars with corded edges.

The sleeves, collar and girdle of one dress are of chiffon. Fuschia pongee, blue, figured with green is combined with plain blue charmeuse.

A Battleship gray taffeta has separate bolero, with gold embroidery and is attracting enthusiastic admiration.

New Spring Coats.

Covert cloth is proving to be such a fashionable Spring fabric that a great proportion of the new models are developed in it.

You may have the three-quarter length coat, in covert cloth, cut almost like a man's frock coat, with straight lines and the natural waist lines sharply defined, or any of the short Bolero or jacket effects.

In covert, gabardine and serge are a number of smart coats, quite full in the hem which is sometimes emphasized by strapped bands of velvet.

For those who want dark colored coats, are black and navy blue serges and gabardines, three-quarter lengths and semi-fitted, some with belts.

The New Spring Assortments of Per-rins' Kid Gloves Are Here.

Notwithstanding the European war and disturbed conditions of manufacturing and risks in shipping, we are able to sell them with one exception at precisely the same prices as last year. These Per-rins' famous Grenoble made kid gloves are probably the best high class kid gloves on the market and we are glad to waive an import commission in order to sell them at the old prices.

Black, White, Tan and the popular colors.

BIRDHOUSES

Should Be Put Up Early

Blue Birds are here. Wrens are coming before long.

New houses are not as acceptable to the birds as those that have been weathered for a few weeks.

We are just in receipt of a supply of neat Wren and Blue Bird Cottages, with removable fronts for cleaning. Choice of either 25c.
